1. Information We Collect

Montani Studios collects information you provide directly when you fill out contact or booking forms, create a client portal account, sign contracts or model releases, subscribe to our newsletter, or communicate with us via email or phone. This includes your name, email address, phone number, mailing address, event details, and any other information you provide.

2. Photography and Image Usage

As a photography and videography studio, we capture, process, and store visual media containing your likeness. Usage rights are governed by your signed photography contract, model release forms, and property release forms. We will not use your images for portfolio or marketing without explicit written consent.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use information to provide and improve our photography services, process bookings and payments, send project updates, deliver images through our secure client portal, respond to your requests, and send promotional communications with your consent.

4. Data Security and Storage

We implement industry-standard security measures to protect your personal information and image files. Your photos are stored on secure, encrypted servers with restricted access. Client galleries are password-protected and accessible only to you and authorized individuals.

5. Data Retention

Contact information is retained as long as you remain a client. Full-resolution images are kept for a minimum of 2 years from delivery. Contracts and releases are retained for 7 years for legal compliance. Client portal access remains active for 1 year from final delivery.

6. Your Rights

You have the right to access, correct, or request deletion of your personal information (subject to contractual obligations), opt out of marketing communications, and request copies of your images within the retention period.

7. Cookies and Analytics
